

A particularly welcome aspect of Tell Camellia, whose name is a nod to Camellia Sinensis, the shrub from which tea is made, is the personalized service one can expect upon entering. Tell Camellia offers diverse drinks options, focusing on artisanal cocktail that are inspired by Tea.

At Tell Camellia, the worlds of teas and cocktails are blended through modern experimental techniques to produce some truly unique flavours. The mission of the bar is to fuse tea and cocktail culture in a way that challenges all who drink here to abandon preconceived cocktail notions and to steep themselves in the unknown.
